- Abstract (assesses your ability to think logically and understand the relations between concepts involving no linguistic, spatial or numerical elements).

Written test

With EPSO's move towards a full 24-language regime a new type of test will be introduced by EPSO in its selection procedures, as of 2024: the written test, a test aimed at assessing candidates' written communication skills. The written test will replace the case study*.

Under the term written test, there are three different types of tests that EPSO will use according to the needs expressed by the recruiting services for each competition:

1. Written test (WT) related to the field(s) of the competition, assessing only written communication skills.
2. Field-related written test (FRWT), assessing written communication skills and knowledge in the relevant field of the competition.
3. Free-text Essay on EU matters (EUFTE) assessing only written communication skills

Digital skills

The digital skills test is aimed at assessing candidates' digital literacy and practical knowledge, as relevant.

This test may cover the following 5 fields:

- Information & data literacy
- Communication & collaboration
- Digital content creation
- Safety
- Problem solving

EU Knowledge

A multiple-choice questionnaire about the EU, the EU institutions and EU main policies.

Question 1

Moldavia is a region in north-eastern Romania. A former independent state until its union with Wallachia in 1859, Moldavia now forms much of the modern state of Romania. Moldavia has, at various times in its history, included the regions of Bessarabia and Bukovina. The larger part of Bessarabia is today the Republic of Moldova while the rest of it and the northern part of Bukovina are territories of Ukraine.

Which of the following statements is correct?

- ☐ Parts of what historically was Moldavia are split over at least three countries
- ☐ Moldova was part of Moldavia until 1859
- ☐ Moldavia covers the same area as the independent state of Moldova
- ☐ Bessarabia and Bukovina are now Moldova and Ukraine respectively

What does it measure?

- Ability to understand key concepts
- Reasoning capacity from written information
- Interpret key points correctly

Key points

- Not embracing concepts that are not in the wording
- Distinguish between false and doubtful
- Read the question well
- Omission of information in a reply does not make it incorrect
- Frequency (always, usually sometimes...)

Numerical Reasoning

What does it measure?

- Identify relevant data
- Identify the quickest way to solve the problem
- Ability to make rapid mental calculations

The keys

- Review basic mathematical concepts: fractions, percentages, equations, 3 rules
- Identify the data required
- In some cases it is possible to use the estimate
- The solution to the problema here

Written test / Essay

Written test

With EPSO's move towards a full 24-language regime a new type of test will be introduced by EPSO in its selection procedures, as of 2024: the written test, a test aimed at assessing candidates' written communication skills. The written test will replace the case study*.

Under the term written test, there are three different types of tests that EPSO will use according to the needs expressed by the recruiting services for each competition:

1. Written test (WT) related to the field(s) of the competition, assessing only written communication skills.
2. Field-related written test (FRWT), assessing written communication skills and knowledge in the relevant field of the competition.
3. Free-text Essay on EU matters (EUFTE), assessing only written communication skills.

Candidates will be required to respond to the test assignment(s) based on the documentation provided by EPSO and related to the field(s) of the competition, as specified in the notice of competition.

The written test is not a language test. Candidates will be assessed on the basis of the specific 'anchors' listed below ('anchors' are the elements taken into consideration by test markers (i.e. assessors) when assessing a given competency).

'Anchors' for written communication skills:

The candidate:

- Writes concisely without use of unnecessary words and sentences.
- Presents subject-matter in an understandable way.
- Adapts/tailors their writing to match the intended audience and purpose.
- Uses the information provided to deal with the assignment.
- Written communication is structured with a logical flow of ideas.

*Case studies will continue to be used for some ongoing competitions.

Essay/Written test

When?

It is done with the other tests but the source documents are available in advance (2 weeks)

Keys

- No external knowledge needed although documents will be connected to the competition (generalist = general).
- It is a communication competency test
- Understand instructions
- Know how to handle a lot of information
- Know how to work under time pressure

Exam

1. It is written on an interface (not Word)
2. Time: 45 minutes (or 40 the notice will state)
3. No self-correction

Essay/Written test

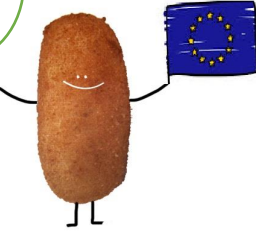

- In the new format, with an European Union source document, you will have to answer a set of objectives or questions marked with a real background
- Document available at least 2 weeks before the exam
- For specialists - document is linked to the subject of the competition.
- But “Only” evaluates communication
- Key to prepare in advance
- English or other language (24)
- It is done on the same day of the exam.

When should I start preparing the competition?

First time in an EPSO competition

When the date of publication of your competition is announced (3 or 2 months before the notice)

- Start with CBT – get familiar with the tests
- Start reading on the Essay (EPSO has some examples or pay attention to other open competitions)
- Review European sources

YASEMOSEUROPEOS.COM

Once the notice of the competition is published

- Practice the tests (MCQ, Essay, Digital, CBT)
- Verify topics and sources for the knowledge exam (MCQ)
- When the deadline for registration is closed, practice regularly a complete set of tests (4 tests) – 1 per week

When should I start preparing the competition?

If you have been part on an EPSO competition before

1 month prior to the publication of the competition

- Test or start reading a case study (EPSO joins the exercises of open competitions)
- Review European sources on the topic that you are interested in
- Resume again the reasoning tests (little by little)

Once the notice of the competition is published

- Practice all the tests
- Verify topics and sources for the knowledge exam (MCQ)
- When the deadline for registration is closed, practice regularly (morning or afternoon) a complete set of tests (4 tests) – 1 per week

How many hours do I have to devote to this?

H

- Hours per week according to point of departure/time
- Quality (no cell phone, no distractions)
- The key is learning from mistakes
- Other factors may influence in the time you need
